

READING'S FAIR BIGGER THAN EVER

Parade Around Grounds Formally Opens Display of Berks County Industries

MORE THAN 15,000 ENTRIES

Reading, Sept. 12.—The great Reading Fair opened yesterday. With good weather it promises to be an immense success. The usual preliminaries were held, including a parade around the grounds. The total number of entries exceeds 15,000. The fair will continue five days, not closing until next Saturday. A new $20,000 poultry house is one of the latest additions to the equipment of the grounds. No gambling privileges are sold and gambling is not allowed on the ground. $20,000 in Trotting Purses.

The trotting purses aggregate $20,000 and the preliminary to exhibit $15,000, in addition to many special premiums. The horse department is full. There are more entries than ever before. The best breeds of horses are shown by the hundreds. The poultry and pigeon departments have never been as large. There are more than 1,000 varieties of birds. There are sheep, pears and grapes grown in Berks, and all these are on exhibition. The Berks County Farm Bureau displays the crops and live-stock products that are produced in Berks County. There is a wonderful display of fancy work and art goods. That is made possible by the new building which is occupied exclusively by that department. The space and light accommodations afford attractive exhibition facilities. The machinery tractors and farm implements are entered in greater value and number than ever before.

New Stage Erected
Facing the grandstand is the new concrete stage, the largest in the country, on which the free acts will be displayed. This stage, costing $25,000, is in itself an ornament. Vaudeville acts will be presented every afternoon and evening, with fireworks at night. The automobile exhibit is a city in itself and occupies a still greater area than the display of last year. While the automobile has in a great measure relegated the horse to the background, especially the lighter and speedier animals, there is a noteworthy display of Percheron and Norman draft horses.

Large Cattle Exhibit
Another exhibit for which over 100 accommodations had to be provided is that of cattle. Exhibitors from at least six States sent herds of pedigreed cattle to the fair. Among the entries are a herd of Dutch belted cattle, a breed never before exhibited at the Reading fair.

Boys and Girls Compete
A county round-up of boys' and girls' pig-breeding clubs will take place at the fair. The three breeding clubs organized in the spring will complete the work for this season Wednesday at the fair and occupy a still greater area than the display of last year. The clubs and names of members follow: Hampshire Breeding Club at DeLong; George DeLong, president; Fred Schlenker, Paul Schlenker, Jacob Rothemel, Warren Grim and Lloyd Schwayer, all of Bowers. Berkshire Breeding Club at Amity—Harry Ithoids, Ray Trainer, Harry L. Schaeffer, Walter Trainer, Richard Pawling, George Youm, Wayne Hartman, Clyde Geiger.

Each of these boys and girls started with one or more pure-bred pigs last spring, kept an account of feed, gain in weight and general care and management. The following prizes will be awarded: Senior contest—First, gold medal, properly inscribed; second, silver medal, properly inscribed; third, bronze medal, properly inscribed. Junior contest—First $3; second, $2.50; third, $2.25. In each contest—Next four prizes, $2 down; next three prizes, one year's subscription to farm papers.

YOUNG CATTLEMEN ENJOY BUCKS COUNTY EXHIBITION

Thirteen Ayreshires Raised by Children Among Livestock Features
Perkasie, Pa., Sept. 12.—This was "School Kids' Day" at the Bucks County Agricultural Fair, which opened this morning at Menlo Park, and will continue until Saturday night. Every department is larger than in any of the seven previous years it has been held.

The following officers of the Bucks County Agricultural Society together with the Bucks County Agent, Henry Sprekel, of Doylestown, are among the active managers of the fair: Linford Foulke, Quakertown, president; Elmer Stover, Quakertown, vice president; Walter Berger, Perkasie, secretary; Joseph Gulden Weisel, treasurer. County Agent Sprekel said that Bucks County ranks second among the sixty-seven counties of Pennsylvania in the value of its agricultural products.

FAIR AT MOUNT HOLLY IS MARRIED BY RAIN

Weather Cleared in Afternoon and Many Persons Attended
Mount Holly, N. J., Sept. 12.—Rain in the morning was the only thing that interfered with the opening of Mount Holly Fair yesterday, but in the afternoon the sun shone and many persons went to the grounds. It was Children's Day, all of the children of school age in the county being admitted free. One of the features of the show is the display of apples put on by twenty commercial growers in the county.

The cattle show is also exceptionally fine, introducing many aristocrats from the Pennacost Stock Farm at Jobstown. The king of the swine victors is Sanguos Sensation, son of Great Orion Sensation, the $100,000 boar. The importance of the political campaign this year is expected to make Thursday a great day for the politicians from various parts of the State. Entering for the motorcycle races Friday are Gene Walker, world's champion; Ralph Hepburn, Pacific Coast champion; Malwyn Jones, Eastern champion; Paul Anderson, Mid-West champion, and John Seymour, Southern champion.

PASTOR KILLED BY FALL

Horse Causes Death of the Rev. W. M. Liggett, of Brandywine Manor
Coatesville, Pa., Sept. 12.—The Rev. William H. Liggett, fifty-three years old, died yesterday at his home at Brandywine Manor from injuries when he fell from a carriage when a horse he was driving became unmanageable. He received a fractured skull and never regained consciousness.

Rev. Liggett leaves a wife and a daughter. He was a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary. He formerly was pastor in New York State and Minnesota.

At the first sign of skin trouble apply Resinol

It improves a poor complexion and preserves a good one, so that you need no artificial means to enhance your attractiveness.

At the first sign of skin irritation, of a blotch or pimple, itching or burning, apply Resinol Ointment, and see if it doesn't bring prompt relief. It contains harmless soothing balsams, and is so nearly flesh colored that it may be used on exposed surfaces without attracting undue attention.
